November 6, 2018 Alabamians vote to join Church & State, return to Sunday Blue Laws & Roman Empire. White House now a Church. M.A.G.A via AL's Sunday Shopping Ban. Roy Moore 2.0. Mike Pence: Faith, the center of White House Policies.

1. Today's date is October 25, 2018. A few days ago was October 22. October 22, 1844 was the date that Jesus entered the Most Holy Place of the Heavenly Sanctuary to perform the work of pronouncing verdicts upon the cases of His professed people and to blot out their sins at the appointed time. This is the final work of Jesus in the plan of redemption.
2. We will study and discover what the Investigative Judgment means to us.
3. What does Luke 19:10 say? _____
4. In order to understand what was lost, we must discover the things that God gave to Adam before he sinned. God made man in His image and likeness and gave him dominion. God's image is synonymous to His glory and character (2 Corinthians 3:18). Read Genesis 1:26 and Psalm 8:4-6. God also gave man a kingdom, a home, which was the garden of Eden. Read Genesis 2:15.
5. After Adam sinned he lost those three things. Adam lost the glory, the image of God. Read Genesis 5:1-3. Adam lost dominion; Satan had conquered him. Read Genesis 3:7,11. Adam lost Eden, which was his kingdom. Read Genesis 3:24. What did Satan say to Jesus? Matthew 4:8,9 _____
6. What was stated in Genesis 3:15? _____
7. What did Jesus go before His Father in order to receive for us, when the Judgment was set and books were opened on October 22, 1844? Daniel 7:9,10,13,14 _____
8. To where and to whom must this message be proclaimed? Daniel 7:14; Revelation 14:6-12 _____
9. Since Jesus has received dominion in order to grant that unto us, read the following scriptures and write your thoughts.
Psalm 119:133 _____
Psalm 19:13 _____
Romans 6:13,14 _____
10. Since Jesus wants to restore to us dominion, glory, and a kingdom, who reigns in a kingdom? _____
- 11a. If we are found faithful, what title will we bear when Jesus returns? What title will Jesus bear? Revelation 19:16 _____
- 11b. Jesus' death on the cross and His intercession in the Most Holy Place of the Heavenly Sanctuary are to make sure that we are kings.
12. Read Revelation 1:5,6. What is the condition that we must meet? _____
13. Read also Revelation 5:9,10 and the following quotation and discover that Jesus is still pleading His blood so that we may become kings.
I saw four angels who had a work to do on the earth, and were on their way to accomplish it. Jesus was clothed with priestly garments. He gazed in pity on the remnant, then raised His hands, and with a voice of deep pity cried, "My blood, Father, My blood, My blood, My blood!" Then I saw an exceeding bright light come from God, who sat upon the great white throne, and was shed all about Jesus. Then I saw an angel with a commission from Jesus, swiftly flying to the four angels who had a work to do on the earth, and waving something up and down in his hand, and crying with a loud voice, "Hold! Hold! Hold! Hold! until the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads." {EW 38.1}
14. What did Jesus say at His closing scene on the earth? John 18:36,37 _____
15. Note: Before we can reign as kings in the New Kingdom, we must rule over our sinful thoughts, desires and flesh.
16. What experience must kings have and what must they abstain from? 1 Peter 2:9-11 _____
The controlling power of appetite will prove the ruin of thousands, when, if they had conquered on this point, they would have had moral power to gain the victory over every other temptation of Satan. But those who are slaves to appetite will fail in perfecting Christian character. The continual transgression of man for six thousand years has brought sickness, pain, and death as its fruits. And as we near the close of time, Satan's temptation to indulge appetite will be more powerful and more difficult to overcome. {Mar 62.5}
17. What instruction is given to kings? Ecclesiastes 10:17 _____
18. What warning is given to kings? Proverbs 31:1-5 _____
19. Note: God gave something else to Adam before he sinned besides dominion, glory, and a kingdom. Jesus will not return until God's professed people retrieve it.
20. What did God give to man along with dominion, glory and a kingdom? Psalm 8:4-6 _____
21. Read Hebrews 2:6-8 and discover that after Adam sinned he no longer had all things under his feet.
22. When will Jesus' work close in the heavenly sanctuary and the work of salvation close? 1 Corinthians 15:25 _____
23. Note: A study of the above verse will show that Jesus accomplish that on the cross, when the head of Satan was crushed, fulfilling Genesis 3:15.
24. What is Jesus waiting on? Romans 16:20 _____
25. Read Hebrews 10:12,13 and discover that those verses point to the cross and Jesus' work in the Holy Place of the Heavenly Sanctuary.
26. Read Hebrews 10:14-22 and discover the work of Jesus in the Most Holy Place of the Heavenly Sanctuary (the Holiest) and the work that we must do, in order to crush Satan's head.

27. What message was preached on the Day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the disciples and faithful people, which was also during the time of the Former Rain? Acts 2:32-41 _____
28. What message must we preach now in this time of Latter Rain, when the Holy Spirit will be poured out in full measure? What experience must we have now? _____
29. Once we get victory over sin as kings, how long will we reign with Jesus? Daniel 7:18 _____
30. What promises are given to Laodiceans, the final phase of God's church? What is the condition? Revelation 3:20,21 _____
31. Note: Jesus will give up the kingdom to His Father that they are both presently sharing. Jesus will then reign in His own kingdom. This will bring the end. Read 1 Corinthians 15:24.
32. What promise is given to us? What is the condition that we must meet? Psalm 91:13-15,1 _____
33. Who will bring a time of trouble upon God's commandment-keeping people in these last days? Daniel 7:19-22 _____

Current Events

34. There is no place in America of greater importance than Washington. The recent developments in that place show that our brethren moved there none too soon. Angels of heaven directed their course in planting the standard of truth in Washington. Men of influence are being aroused to study the truth for this time. No opportunity should be left unimproved to establish the work firmly in this important place... Angels of heaven will unite with the Lord's appointed ministers and medical missionaries, aiding them to exert on the minds of the people an influence in favor of the truth. Philadelphia and other important places should be worked. Evangelists should be finding their way into all the places where the minds of men are agitated over the question of Sunday legislation and of the teaching of religion in the public schools. It is the neglect of Seventh-day Adventists to improve these providential opportunities to present the truth that burdens my heart, and keeps me awake night after night. {RH, April 20, 1905 par. 13,14}
35. An advocate for passing the Ten Commandments amendment on Alabama ballots on Nov. 6 said Gov. Kay Ivey has committed to trying to put Ten Commandments displays in all public schools and on all state property. "As Governor, will you use all of your available power, authority and influence to have the Ten Commandments posted conspicuously in/on all 'Property belonging to the state' including public schools within 3 months of the people of Alabama passing Amendment #1 on the ballot on November 6, 2018?" Dean Young asked on the letter. Governor Kay Ivey marked the "Yes" box. "I support posting the Ten Commandments in public places because goodness knows we need to keep the good Lord and our God almighty in the forefront of our lives."
- Dean Young said he expects Alabama voters to overwhelmingly approve the Ten Commandments amendment. "This has taken on a huge life of its own," Dean Young said. "Not only are Alabamians waiting with everything they've got to get to the polls on November the 6th to vote for Amendment No. 1, the Ten Commandments amendment, but the nation is watching and the world will be watching." "I want to make this perfectly clear," Dean Young said. "On November the 6th, the people of Alabama will show not only the state, but the nation and the world that we're tired of the way our country is headed. That we're watching the end of a western Christian empire. And if we don't do something that we're going to see the end of our way of life.
- Dean Young stated, "And I have all the faith in the world in the people of Alabama that on November the 6th red-blooded Alabamians will go to the polls and show the state and show the nation and show the world that we do want to get back to God, the basics. And when I say God, let me make this very clear, since I wrote the amendment, the Christian God that this nation was founded on." <https://www.al.com/news/2018/10/amendment-1-advocate-says-ivey-wants-ten-commandments-in-all-schools.html>.
36. In Alabama a Seventh-day Adventist was arrested under a law enacted to prevent an employer compelling a minor to work on Sunday. The man's son, of eighteen, who worked on the farm, testified that he worked of his own free will, being himself a member of a Seventh-day Adventist Church; but the father was convicted and removed to prison. Friends of justice in the place paid the fine and secured their neighbor's release. Such are the Sunday laws in the United States, where church organizations are working as never before to get control of legislative bodies to secure more stringent enforcement of Sunday observance. {May 28, 1896 EJW, PTUK 352.8}
37. Dean Young said he expects Alabama voters to overwhelmingly approve the Ten Commandments amendment. "This has taken on a huge life of its own," Dean Young said. "Not only are Alabamians waiting with everything they've got to get to the polls on November the 6th to vote for Amendment No. 1, the Ten Commandments amendment, but the nation is watching and the world will be watching." <https://www.al.com/news/2018/10/amendment-1-advocate-says-ivey-wants-ten-commandments-in-all-schools.html>.
38. There must be no pretense in the lives of those who have so sacred and solemn a message as we have been called to bear. The world is watching Seventh-day Adventists because it knows something of their profession of faith and of their high standard, and when it sees those who do not live up to their profession, it points at them with scorn. {9T 23.2}

41. SDA Pastor Snell: "The Sunday service is going to be a first point of contact for the unchurched in the community and for people who, for whatever reason - beliefs, work - can't come on Saturday. We have communicated to the Conference office (the regional center) because they wanted clarity on this, but once we communicated the purpose to them, they saw that it is not a big deal." https://www.al.com/living/index.ssf/2015/02/seventh-day_adventist_sunday.html
42. _____ Pastor Snell (chuckles): "Well again I just think to say that worshipping on Sunday is the Mark of the beast, I think that's maybe a little bit too narrow of a way to look at it. I think the issue with the mark of the beast is actually lawlessness and rebellion against God, and I just think that God is going to use certain things as a test of loyalty, the Sabbath being one of them. But I think the larger issue is actually lawlessness... The thoughts and the decisions handling them in a way that is anti-God, contrary to the scriptures...I think the problem is as well...I just think its important that we, as we try to win people to the truth that we don't create an adversarial scenario by kind of... using terminology that is going to alienate us from those that need to hear the truth and be able to respond to it." <http://advindicate.com/articles/2015/2/16/an-adventist-church-begins-sunday-services-as-evangelism-tool>
43. SDA Pastor Rebecca Davis: There's a quiet riot among us. It's like an underground movement happening right in our midst! It's because pastors are no longer satisfied with the status quo. There are pastors who are no longer ok with the exclusive, separatist, controlling, traditionalist, one size fits all mentality that has consistently threatened the life of our denomination. You see no matter how many times you explain to some members or some denominational leaders why space should be given to have Sunday eleven am worship services, no matter how many Ellen White quotes you throw their way, they still will never get it. And I mean, you can talk and argue until you're blue in the face! We have become so focused on internal battles such as, whether or not ethnic conferences should be dissolved, worship styles, women's ordination and why we shouldn't have services on Sunday, that it has effectively restricted our ability to move forward. However, there are so many of us who are standing up saying, "No more!" <https://www.prophesyagain.org/single-post/2016/11/27/Seventh-day-Adventist-Snowflakes-Prototyping-the-Wrong-Issues?p=143>

45. Dean Young acknowledged Supreme Court cases prohibit the promotion of a religion on public property, but he said he is confident that will change. "Just because you have five justices on the Supreme Court that make a bad decision, that doesn't make it right," he said. "Anybody with two eyes and a brain can look around and see what's happened to our country when we removed God from the public square. We're watching kids shoot each other. They've been taught that there are no absolutes. What you see when you open your eyes and look around right now in this country is the result of that." Republican Gov. Kay Ivey has also said she supports the amendment. https://www.decatordaily.com/news/elections/commandments-amendment-debated-costly-trick-or-christian-charm/article_e5d80cdb-6349-5cae-b54e-ac2b2465c42c.html
46. "On ABC, Mr. Santorum said that the First Amendment 'means bringing everybody, people of faith and no faith, into the public square. Kennedy for the first time articulated the vision saying, 'No. Faith is not allowed in the public square.' To say that people of faith have no role in the public square — you bet that makes you throw up...The idea that the church can have no influence or no involvement in the operation of the state is absolutely antithetical to the objectives and vision of our country. I don't believe in an America where the separation of church and state is absolute, Mr. Santorum said. https://www.washingtonpost.com/blogs/post-partisan/post/angry-rick-santorum-throws-up-on-jfk/2011/03/04/gIQA4tiidR_blog.html?noredirect=on&utm_term=.73a95591af81
47. "I believe in an America where the separation of church and state is absolute, where no Catholic prelate would tell the president (should he be Catholic) how to act, and no Protestant minister would tell his parishioners for whom to vote; where no church or church school is granted any public funds or political preference...I believe in an America that is officially neither Catholic, Protestant nor Jewish--where no public official either requests or accepts instructions on public policy from the Pope, the National Council of Churches or any other ecclesiastical source--where no religious body seeks to impose its will directly or indirectly upon the general populace or the public acts of its officials--and where religious liberty is so indivisible that an act against one church is treated as an act against all."<https://www.npr.org/templates/story/story.php?storyId=16920600>
48. "Religious freedom certainly means the right to worship God, individually and in community, as our consciences dictate. But religious liberty, by its nature, transcends places of worship and the private sphere of individuals and families...In a world where various forms of modern tyranny seek to suppress religious freedom, or, as I said earlier, to try to reduce it to a subculture without right to a voice in the public square..." <https://www.nytimes.com/2015/09/26/us/pope-francis-remarks-at-independence-hall.html>
49. Dean Young, a former Congressional candidate and longtime ally of Roy Moore, held a press conference at the State Capitol today and distributed a questionnaire apparently returned and signed by Gov. Kay Ivey. <https://www.al.com/news/2018/10/amendment-1-advocate-says-ivey-wants-ten-commandments-in-all-schools.html>.

50. Roy Moore subscribes to one of them called Dominionism/Reconstructionism. As a believer in this doctrine, Moore espouses a theocracy... (Theocracy is a system of government in which priests rule in the name of God or a god.) Moore also believes in a theonomy which posits that Biblical Law is applicable to civil law, and theonomists propose Biblical law as the standard by which the laws of nations may be measured, and to which they ought to be conformed. In other words, Old Testament (OT) Mosaic Law, other than a few dietary laws, rules the land. <https://newswithviews.com/why-president-trump-endorsed-luther-strange/>

51. While most Religious Right leaders eventually rallied around Donald Trump's candidacy, his earliest Amen Corner was heavy with the self-proclaimed apostles and prophets from the dominionist Pentecostal wing of American Christianity who declared Trump anointed by God. As Trump prepares to take office, many of the same people came to Washington, D.C., last week to launch "POTUS Shield," a movement designed in part to "discern, declare, and decree the strategies of the Lord for our nation, with a special sensitivity to the three branches of the United States government." <http://www.rightwingwatch.org/post/trumps-apostles-prophets-create-potus-shield-to-renew-americas-covenant-with-god/>

52. Roy Moore Wants a Constitutional Convention Moore believes that by opening the Constitution he can get a marriage amendment... He has declined to listen to anyone regarding the 1787 Convention precedents. Neither has he viewed Chief Justice Warren Burger's letter to Phyllis Schlafly regarding the dangers of a Con-Con, Phyllis's many writings that a Con-Con could not be controlled, the words of James Madison regarding another convention, and the writings of scholars who know the dangers of a second Convention, etc. <https://newswithviews.com/why-president-trump-endorsed-luther-strange/>

53. "We're put here on earth for a short time, and for that short time, our duty is to serve Almighty God and serve Him in all things," he also declared. "We have to return the knowledge of God and the Constitution of the United States to the United States Congress." Moore lamented the division that is sweeping America, but expressed optimism that God can restore the country to its former "greatness."

54. "We want Roy Moore": Trump endorses controversial candidate at rally <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aHyQbHwgYUc>

55. "Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" and all that — but blessing people is no substitute for upholding God's standards, and there are people in spiritual poverty who express that by taking the Lord's name in vain, or by shopping on Sunday, or disobeying their parents, or by coveting their neighbor's wife, and if we don't punish sin, then sin will overrun the nation, as it has done already. That is why Judge Moore is not a Beatitudes guy but a Ten Commandments man. The law is the law. https://www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/god-has-sent-us-a-judge-hallelujah/2017/09/27/97789364-a3a7-11e7-8cfe-d5b912fab99_story.html?utm_term=.179ef80aa669

56. "Thou shalt not swear." But God's chosen party, the Republican Party, has waffled on this issue, as it has on the issue of adultery and obedience to parents and observance of the Sabbath and the engraving industry. And that is why our country today is on the verge of destruction. The signs are everywhere. Judge Moore is the only man who dares say so...If we create stoning grounds in the centers of our cities and we publicly execute those who are guilty of rebelliousness, adultery, engraving, shopping on Sunday and cursing, you will see America become great again, assuming you are not one who will be executed. https://www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/god-has-sent-us-a-judge-hallelujah/2017/09/27/97789364-a3a7-11e7-8cfe-d5b912fab99_story.html?utm_term=.5eea706e5985
